

Good morning 6th graders! Welcome to class 3. I hope all of you are doing great!

Before we begin, write down the date:

- Today it's Tuesday, March 24th, 2020
  - It's not summer anymore, It's autumn!
  - It is not hot, but not cold either.
  - Good thing, it is still sunny!
  - Today we will analyze the reading and talk in plural!
1. So far we have studied about the concept of multicultural, we have read about biographies of people around the world and we have learned new words in context. So far? So good.
  2. Now I would like to put this information into practice, go to page 10 in your book and work on exercise 3 according to the reading. Do the same with exercise 4, 5 and 6.
  3. Here is where I want you to stop and analyze. Last year we studied singular and plural nouns, before you check the video about plurals: Look at exercise 6, how do you know the words in plural? What makes it different from the singular ones? Write down your thoughts, and then complete exercise 6, which one is irregular? What makes you say that?
  4. Take a look at the irregular nouns video, write down the words in your copybook. Bad news! Unfortunately there is no easy way to learn irregular nouns, you will just have to write them down and repeat (this is the "boring part" of learning a new language, I am sorry!)
  5. After you finish all steps, just analyze how you feel. Was this useful for you? How are you feeling today after all this practice? Tired? Bored? Write down your emotion and explain the reason you feel that way.

Please remember, we are all in this together, I wish I could teach you this in person, but soon, very soon we will see each other again. Do not hesitate if you want to send me an email with questions, suggestions, comments, anything! I am here for you.

*Lots of love,
Miss Poulette*
