

Hello dear student! Today you will work with your student’s book. Also, you will need your copybook, your dictionary and your pencil case. Let’s start!

Topic: Unit 1 Around the World / Reading “London the world in one city”

Instructions:

- Read the text on page 11 again.
- Complete the activities from 1 to 6 on page 10. You can write your answers on your copybook.
- Complete the worksheet below which is taken from the workbook.

1 Complete the email with six of the words below.

cosmopolitan cultures deli mix
originally ~~population~~ race reputation

2 Read the email again. Match the headings 1-5 with the paragraphs A-E.

- 1 Places to eat E
- 2 Where I am ---
- 3 Different languages ---
- 4 My mum’s sister ---
- 5 My mum and my sister ---

3 Correct the mistakes in bold.

- 1 Emma is in Montreal, in France.
Canada
- 2 1.6 million families live in Montreal.

- 3 Liz is originally from Canada. _____
- 4 Most people in Montreal speak Canadian and French. _____
- 5 Sarah studies English at school. _____
- 6 Emma eats in French delis and Chinese restaurants. _____

4 Complete the sentences with the words below.

~~Canada~~ Canadian Chinese
English French Italian

- 1 Liz's husband is from Canada.
- 2 Generally people in Montreal speak _____ as well as French.
- 3 Most people speak in _____ at home.
- 4 Emma's mum has some problems understanding _____ French.
- 5 On Saint Laurent Boulevard, you can hear some people speaking _____.
- 6 Emma's favourite food is _____ food.

5 Answer the questions.

- 1 Would you like to visit Montreal?
Why / Why not?

- 2 What languages do people in your city or country speak?

- 3 What kinds of food do you like (e.g. Italian, Chinese)?

Do you think Chile is a Cosmopolitan country? Why?

Which city is more cosmopolitan, Santiago or Talca? Why?

Think of three things, places or people you like from other countries.

Would you like to live and study in London? Why?

